FRIENDS OF DEDDINGTON LIBRARY

www.FriendsofDeddingtonLibrary.org

Deddington Library has served Deddington Parish and surrounding villages since it was opened in 1956 by JRR Tolkien.

It has survived many challenges since then, but none quite like the challenge faced nine years ago when OCC budget cuts were so severe the only options were to close libraries or reduce funding and rely on volunteer help and community fundraising to meet the shortfall.

Oxfordshire County Council (OCC) agreed to enable community libraries to be volunteer supported and community funded, this became our next challenge.

The Friends of Deddington Library (FoDL) were formed, and fundraising began. A subscription-based membership to FoDL was introduced and is essential to support the ongoing costs FoDL have legally agreed with OCC.

We rely heavily on fundraising to meet the annual shortfall in subscription income. The Deddington Parish Calendar is one such fundraiser, which has been hugely successful since its inception in 2017.

Deddington Library provides a huge resource to the local community including free to use internet ready computers linked to many resources like Ancestry and Find My Past, free Wi-Fi, Rhyme times for under 5's and families and of course, constantly changing books stock! Deddington Primary School have weekly class visits, numerous Reading Groups are supported too, and the Home Library Service delivers books to the elderly and housebound people in their own homes.

All this and so much more, at Deddington Library on your doorstep...and we need to keep it there!!

With your support we can!!
